HIPAAAnswers™

Everything you need to comply™

Who Must Comply?

Employers who provide:

- Fully insured health plans
- Self-funded plans (more than 50 participants)
- Flexible Spending Accounts
- Dental Plans
- Vision Plans
- Section 125 Plans

How do I comply?

- Implement policies and procedures to protect patient Protected Health Information (PHI), including staff training, access to records, and written procedures
- Assign a Privacy Officer for your organization
- Implement Business Associate agreements for Protected Health Information provided to insurers, TPA's or other benefit plan intermediaries

HIPAAAnswers™ Helps Employers Meet Compliance Requirements

HIPAA, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, provides for the protection of an individual's health information. Small health plans should have been in compliance by April 14, 2004, with additional compliance provisions taking effect over the next few years. There are significant fines and penalties that can be imposed for non-compliance.

How can we help?

Our alliance with HIPAAAnswers™ brings you an affordable solution. HIPAAAnswers™ is a web-based service that helps organizations understand and comply with the HIPAA privacy, transactions, security and identifier regulations, and maintain ongoing compliance.

Why use HIPAAAnswers™?

- Easy and convenient to use. Takes you through a simple five-step process presented clearly and precisely
- State specific. Identifies areas in which state law preempts HIPAA Privacy and explains how to address them
- Tailored to your specific needs. Makes available only the regulations, tools, and templates your organization needs
- Constantly updated. Monitors federal and state regulations and updates documents appropriately
- Affordable. Reduce attorney fees for compliance implementation
